

Thank you for your interest in becoming a steward of the Little Free Libraries (LFLs) sponsored by the Friends of the Barberton Public Library!

Duties:

1. The stewards (2 per Little Free Library) will monitor the condition of the LFL for maintenance, vandalism, book selections, and use. Book selections can include items from the Friends' Book Room as needed.
2. The stewards will call the Book Room Manager as needed to arrange time to choose selections.
3. The stewards will report maintenance/vandalism issues to the LFL Committee Chairperson as soon as possible.
4. The stewards will conduct visual checks of LFL frequently (as by driving by), and will check contents and maintenance at least every two weeks. Stewards may discard printed materials not related to LFL, as well as damaged items.
5. Suggestions for publicity for LFL can be brought to the LFL Committee Chairperson for discussion at appropriate meeting time (at Committee or Friends meetings).
6. Read through the Stewardship Booklet for ideas and suggestions for implementation. Bring to the attention of the LFL Committee for approval prior to beginning any local program, celebration, etc.
7. Attend meetings as needed regarding ideas for LFL
