1. The plan is for the Interim Director to offer the Children Services Librarian position to Sarah Massey at $15.75 an hour. She is a recent graduate and works at the Summit County Library as a Public Service Assistant. A recommendation for the hiring of Ms. Massey written by Alison Huey was read to the Board.

2. Continuing Education
   • Emma Hutchison - Marketing eMedia (Overdrive webinar)
   • Jennifer O’Neill - Leading Libraries Strategies for all levels of Management (OLC conference)
   • Dia Thomas – Overview of Libby, Marketing Your Digital Library to Older Adults (Overdrive webinars);
     Springtime D.I.Y.: New Crafts Titles in Print and Audio (Booklist webinar)
   • Susanne Cogar - Emerging Tech Symposium (NEO-RLS conference).

3. Community Engagement
   • Alison Huey taught at Safety Town
   • Sarah Hays put together a local history showcase of items to display in the store windows of Summit Artspace on Tus.
   • Melissa Futrell attended a Bike Share meeting
   • Julianne Bedel attended the quarterly meeting of Barberton Nonprofits
   • Emma Hutchison attended a planning meeting for Labor Day events around Lake Anna.

4. All proposed work is completed in Teen Central. Susanne Cogar will be collecting usage statistics and will complete the final report to the BCF, which is due by November 2018. Expenditures in Teen Central totaled $19,041 which includes a $4,500 BCF grant, $1,250 FOL donations, $2,960 donations from the 2017 fundraiser, and $10,331 from the library’s budget. Estimate for replacing the mismatched carpet border from Shaw Contract came in at $1,899.93. For now, the carpeting remains mismatched.

5. Painting and carpet installation in the College Now office is complete. The carpeting was donated by College Now as it was overage from a project at their Cleveland location.

6. Special thanks to Julianne Bedel for preparing the Director’s notes for this report.
