DEDICATION

To Stanley F. Pratt, coach and teacher, a man of growing personality and whole hearted devotion to his work, a friend of warm geniality and sympathy which has won the hearts of those with whom he has come in contact, we dedicate this Magician of June, 1927.

FOREWORD

MAGICIAN

We present to you in this edition of the Magician another High School Semester. We have sincerely striven to compile a book worthy of our Alma Mater. If we awaken your interest in Barberton's achievements, increase your appreciation of Barberton's ideals and beget a new love of Barberton's life and atmosphere and traditions, our efforts will have been truly rewarded, for toward this end they have been directed.

OUTWARD BOUND

The sun is sinking in the western sky And casts a haze on our unchartered path; We again set sail with colors flying high, The Orange and Black streaming from the mast!

We were a loyal and a merry crew And we sailed with the drifting tides, For the call of Youth is an urgent call And we left all our cares with our guides.

But now our course grows harder, As we leave the port of the Past And seventy-three loyal sailors Salute the colors nailed to the mast.

Our ship sets sail through the river of years With a crew that is brave and calm; With one accord we shout our watch-word cheer, "Look back, Look forward and Look around!"

Our Circus in B. H. S. (Journalism Class)

For eight years we had performed in the side shows of Lincoln, St. Augustine, Hazelwood, Washington, and Highland. In September, 1923, the Orange and Black entered the Big Top at Central High and organized a circus troupe. The company is now disbanding after four years of active work. There were originally two hundred and eleven members but the party drifted apart until only seventy-three remain to bid farewell.

The Great Orange and Black Four Ring Show has attracted the interest of all neighboring towns. Some of the most startling performances were "The Grab Bag" and "Clarence" which was the hit of the season. The First Ring was organized under the direction of Edna Gardner. Only three acts were given by this ring as the troupe was still unsettled. Miss Ruth Kline and Miss McCauley were appointed ring masters and one year was spent in training the monkeys to jump thru algebra books without getting stage fright.

In 1924 the public was given the first opportunity to see the Second Ring perform in the gymnasium. This stunt was given in the form of a weiner roast planned by Stanley Snyder, leader of the Ring. After this affair the Orange and Black closed quarters for several months owing to faculty censorship. During this season many members retired. Statistics show that the cause of this great drop-off was due to the retirement of many actors who felt they were too old for the glare of the spot-light. This Ring produced some world-famous bare-back riders who galloped to fame on Cicero ponies.

It was the Third Ring under the direction of ring mistress Blanche Brubaker that first attracted the public eye. The caste held a mass-meeting and adopted an official ring seal. A barn party was given to celebrate this event. All the company turned out for the frolic. Rearing lions and monkey chatter was forgotten while the actors danced on a barn floor and played hide-and-seek in the hay mow.

The last act was begun in September, 1926, by the Fourth Ring. Charles Mears, President of the Great Orange and Black, opened the show with startling advertising. The troupe adopted a standard color to be used in publicity work. The colors were first made public on the opening night of the "Grab Bag". The rumbling wheels of the circus wagons thundered down Main Street, blazoned with orange stripes, with the band men decked out in orange and black blazers. The wonderful success of the Four Ring Show was due for the most part to the untiring zeal of Miss Marguerite Cline, advisor and general manager.

On April twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth "Clarence" was presented to the public as a final farewell. At the close of May Commencement was held and all actors in the Great Orange and Black Four-Ring Show were given diplomas and promoted to the great theatre of Life.

With a final "adieu", the curtain dropped and our circus was over.

CLASS SONG

Here's to the Class of '27— Here's to the Orange and Black. We'll stand for friendships loyal and true; Courage we'll never lack.

We'll give a cheer for anyone Who's for the Orange and Black. Here's to the Class of 1927, Where mem'ry will e'er turn back.

Class Will

(Journalism Class)

We, the members of the Great Orange and Black Four-Ring Show of June '27, city of Barberton, county of Summit and state of Ohio, being of changeable mind and doubtful memory and realizing that some day we must pass over the Great Divide, knowing also that the world is waiting with open arms to receive this illustrious troupe, publish and declare this to be our last will and testament.

Having cancelled all mercenary debts and obligations we shall dispose of our earthly possessions in the following manner:

ARTICLE I

We, the class of June '27, bequeath to the Senior B's our l ard earned title of "Senior" with all the dignity becoming it together with our menagerie, consisting of first class monkeys, witless clowns and Cicero ponies.

To the faculty we leave the memory of our bright and smiling faces besides all our A's to be divided generously among the lower classes. The boys leave their toothpicks and the girls their vanity cases, burst or otherwise, to those members of the faculty who disapprove of such accessories.

To the Sophomores we will our superfluity of intellect—being educated we no longer need it.

We bequeath to the Freshmen the impression that all Seniors may do as they like, hoping that in 1930 they still believe this.

To our beloved principal, Mr. Wyman, we leave our sincere affection and gratitude for all he has done to make our Four-Ring Show a success.

To our faculty advisor, Miss Cline, we bequeath our heartfelt appreciation for her untiring efforts in the management of our circus, together with the sincere wish that the next Journalism Class may not be such a dumb set of cruds.

ARTICLE II

I, Charles Mears, will my experience and tact in training mules to Miriam Tawney, realizing that she will sorely need this asset in her next year's work.

Fred Parks leaves his reputation of an "old landmark" to Pearl Carmichael, knowing that he will put it to good use.

To "Art" Weller Joe Seryak leaves his ability of spreading sunshine.

"Lin" Brown bequeaths his aristocratic swagger to Willie Lou Johnson, to be used in the Black Bottom.

Ruth Bell leaves her "cry-baby" pose to George Spoonster, as it is more suited to one of his size and classification.

Twenty-Six

To Frank Brown, Ralph Hayhurst does dequeath his sweet voice together with his ability to sing "Jerusalem, My Happy Home" with such pathos.

Bessie Mickley begs to leave her golden molars to Bessie Chandler, realizing that variety is "the spice of life".

I, William Jennings, do bequeath to Clarence Dull my perfect hip-line on condition that he keep them in good shape.

Arthur Logsdon with much sorrow and regret leaves his famous gloves to the school as a valuable antique by which he may long be remembered.

Dorothy Bantz, Ruth Bell, "Billie" Donaldson and Blanche Brubaker leave four practically new gym outfits to anyone who wants them.

To Mark Leppzer "Vin" Kinney wills his baby-face bangs together with the ability to keep his hair slicked down so nicely.

"Ed" Fischer leaves a perfectly good reputation as high man in the Aspirin Contest to any druggist who cares to use it for advertising purposes.

I, Emaline Werner, do will and bequeath to Mr. Pieffer a wealth of tact and patience, having heard that the said Pieffer is sorely in need of this asset.

To the Board of Education Fred Parks leaves a valuable hat, guaranteed to be not older than five years, to be used only in cases of emergency.

Harold Eckroate bequeaths to Dale Ling a practically new roadster with no less than seven vital organs missing.

The Honorable "Hezzbeckle" Enright bequeaths one beautiful antique, corduroy overcoat to Johnny Cleary. "Bill" thinks John can get a new suit made from it.

Donald Robinson leaves all his excess nervous energy to the teachers to be used in large quantities to pep up the school spirit.

After due consideration, Marjorie Boden and "Billie" Donaldson have decided to bequeath all their earthly goods, consisting of a miscellaneous collection of tardy slips, to Edith Heller and Mary Keenan.

Joe Sherman leaves his "Pepsodent" smile to Grace Brown, having been informed that she is sadly in need of it at the present time.

Harry Apley bequeaths his Herculean physique to Frankie Bouscher so he can defend himself against the assaults of the "clubbers".

With many fond regrets John Lipovsky wills to the Board of Education his maxillary appendage to keep company with "Bill's" coat in the school museum.

Kathryn Buskey sends her best wishes to the School Board with the hope that her successor in the stock-room may be on time at least once a week.

Twenty-Seven

Upon receipt of seventeen cents, Dorothy Bantz will deliver to Letha Jennings a slightly used bottle of peroxide.

Joe Sykora leaves behind one big heart ("one-fifth off with the bread free gratis") together with those red, red, ears to anyone who will take them.

ARTICLE III

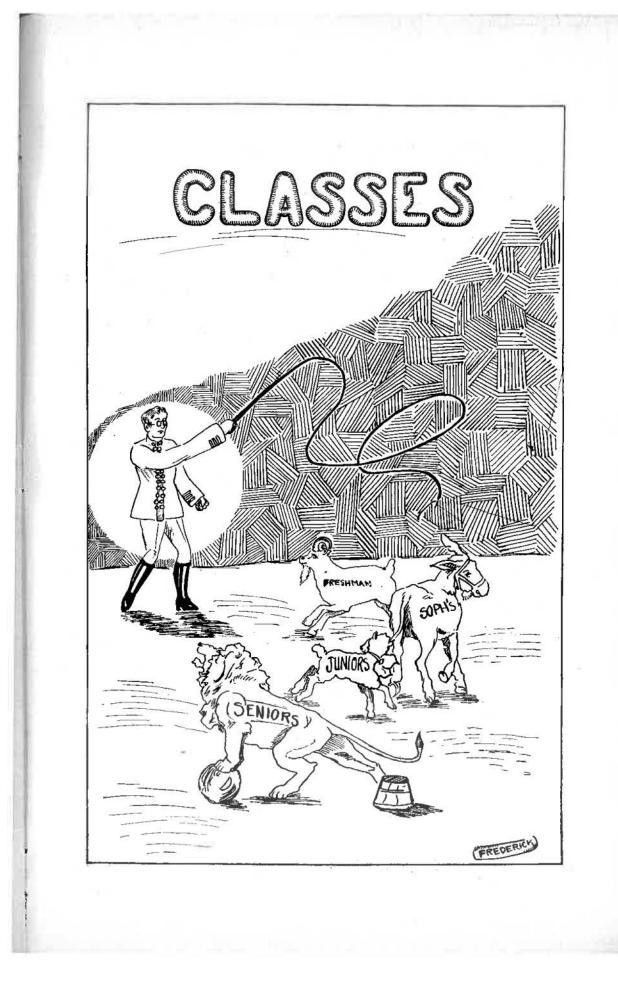

We hereby constitute and appoint the Senior B class sole executor of this our last will and testament. We also charge our executors with the sad duty of conducting our funeral services with all the dignity and pomp befitting such an illustrious class.

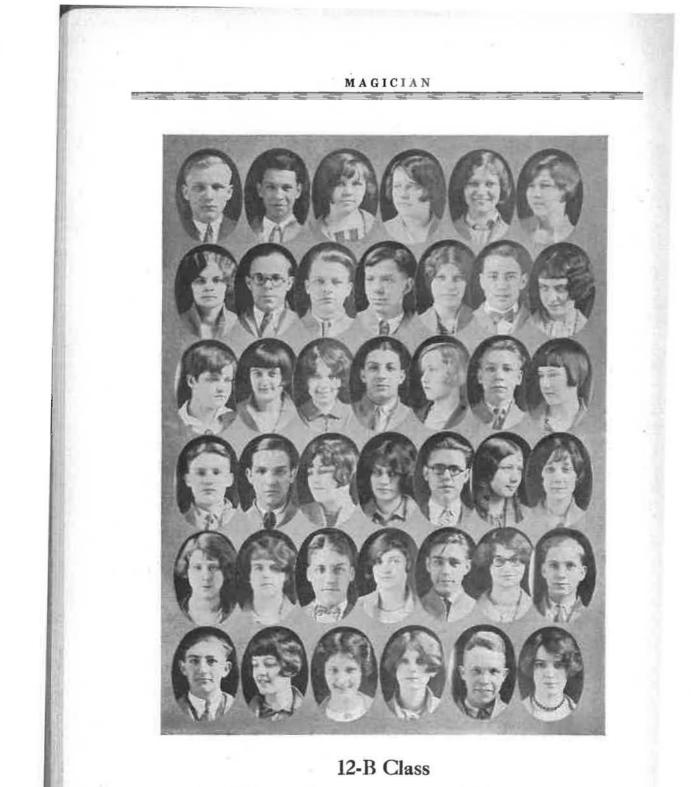

In order to insure peace and tranquility after our demise, we hereby appoint Mr. Spangler attorney of the estate. Being of a somewhat portly build, we feel that he will be able to defend himself against all cases of assault and battery arising from the execution of this document.

Signed and acknowledged in the presence of each other on this third day of June, A. D. 1927.

The Student Council

One of the outstanding organizations in the High School is the Student Council which was originated several years ago for the purpose of making suggestions to the faculty and assisting in righting problems.

The present organization is composed of a representative from each room in the school, who is elected to the post and is nominated through his ability to assist in keeping school spirit alive.

Pricipal H. B. Wyman heads the group and is advisor. Stanley Snyder is president, Lawrence Snyder secretary and Francis LaPorte vice president.

Problems pertaining to congestion in the school halls, entertainments, ushering at school functions and many others are discussed at weekly meetings. This year has proved to be very interesting and was much enjoyed by members.

Thirty-Eight

Le Club Francais

Le Club Francais has celebrated its second birthday and is prepared to begin the third year with much enthusiasm. Although the club is selective it boasts of a large roll of willing workers. The programs planned and coached with the help of Miss Jeffries have been varied and interesting throughout the year.

Le Club Francais not only has talent in the dramatization and speaking of French plays and works, but has a very good music department too. The quartette and orchestra have helped to contribute variety to the programs.

The high points this year have been: The Christmas Party, the Chapel Program, and the Open Night.

Le Club Francais loses with the graduation of the June Class of '27 some of its most co-operative members.

Thirty-Nine

Beta Lambda

This club, organized at the beginning of the second semester, is known as the Beta Lambda Biology Club.

Membership is open to those students who have an interest in the biological sciences.

The aim and purpose of this club is to instill in the minds of those interested a spirit of searching and reaching out for those things which are true in the world about us; seeing things as they are and not as they seem, and a hope that we may develop an appreciation of the finer things of life.

Although this organization is young, we hope, as a club, to do many things in the future.

Forty

Zeta English Club

The Zeta English Club, organized last year under the supervision of Miss Thutt, is composed of two groups, A and B students and those chosen by popular election.

This Club has promoted an active interest in literature and dramatics and is increasing in membership each semester.

The officers are:

President	Agnes McNamara
Vice President
Secretary	Emaline Werner
Treasurer	Edna Gardner
Reporter
Critic	Mana Inna Okana

Forty-One

Alpha English Club

Alpha Club in its second year is increasingly popular. The purpose of this organization is to arouse enthusiasm for the use of good English. Some of the motives used in doing this are: Dramatization of comedies and farces, debating, writing stories, poems, and the study of authors and good books.

The club also boasts of a nine-piece orchestra, directed by Sardis Titley.

Miss Sylvia Thutt is faculty director.

The cabinet and sixty co-operative members of the Girl Reserves have completed another successful year's work in Barberton High School.

Last September a general theme "The Search for the Holy Grail" was chosen by the girls as a foundation for all the meetings. In working out different phrases of this subject, each girl was given the opportunity throughout the year to develop her own character, physically, mentally and spiritually.

G. A. A.

The membership of the G. A. A. during the past semester has made an exceptional gain and much enthusiasm has been taken in its work. Much credit is due Miss Heyman for the interest she has shown in this association and under her leadership it is certain to continue to be one of Barberton High's most progressive organizations.

Recreation Club

The biggest club in B. H. S. is Recreation, familiarly known as "Rec". The dances in both Music Room and Gym have been bright spots in the school calendar. "Rec" serves as a link between present members of Central High and the Alumni, who largely attend these hops. The biggest and best party was held May 6 when eats were served.

Fred Parks has been in charge of club activities. Miss Heyman acted as Faculty Advisor and music was furnished by the famous "Harmony Hounds".

Forty-Four

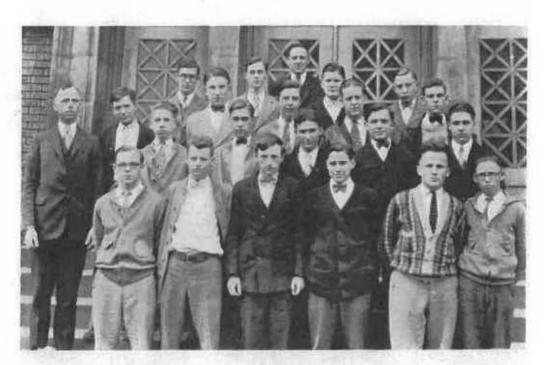

Leaders Club

The Leaders Class was organized in the Spring of 1927. There are two main purposes of the club; first, it makes possible a more widely varied program of activities, and a larger participation in this program. Second, through the trust and responsibility placed in the girls, they develop resourcefulness, pose, self-control, tact and executive ability.

The club started with twenty-five members selected on the basis of fitness for work. From the beginning, members of the group were assigned, in addition to certain routine tasks, the actual teaching of class work.

The group has been considered as a group of teachers with the responsibilities of teachers as examples to the student body at large. They are primarily instructors, secondarily clerical helpers. They take charge, under supervision, of a large part of the physical education program.

Forty-Five

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y this year has made considerable progress under a well organized executive board with Charles Mears President, Robert Anderson Vice President, Richard Washburn Secretary, and Howard Coffelt Treasurer. Mr. Everett and Mr. Pieffer being the Faculty Advisors.

Just as the ideal of the members is to develop their own lives physically, mentally and morally to the same degree of perfection, so has been the purpose of the club in its program to carry out these principles. A great many uplifting discussions have been held on the spiritual side of man's life and practical applications of these have so far as possible been made.

Outside speakers have been brought to give expert advice on certain problems.

To develop the physical side of life the club members took active part in Y. M. C. A. basketball tournaments and games.

The social life was brought in through theatre parties and various other activities.

Thus it can be seen that so far as possible practical applications of the all around man have been brought in order to materially benefit not only the club but also the entire phase of school life in order to bring about a more ideal condition under which we as school citizens would like to work and play.

Forty-Six

Glee Club

The popularity of B. H. S. Glee Club has increased steadily throughout the year. Their faithful singing in assembly and occasional delightful appearances have never failed to please.

The biggest musical event of the year, "The Pennant", an operetta, was one of the big successes of the year.

Both girls and boys Glee Clubs made pleasing choruses for the following cast:

Doris Band
Jack Lawson
Mrs. Band	Grace Brown
Mr. Band
Reno Gross	Fern Poulton
Verdent Green
Lord Woodby Rich	Edward Fischer
Owen	Blair Hicks
Mason
Harding	Rodney Hazlett

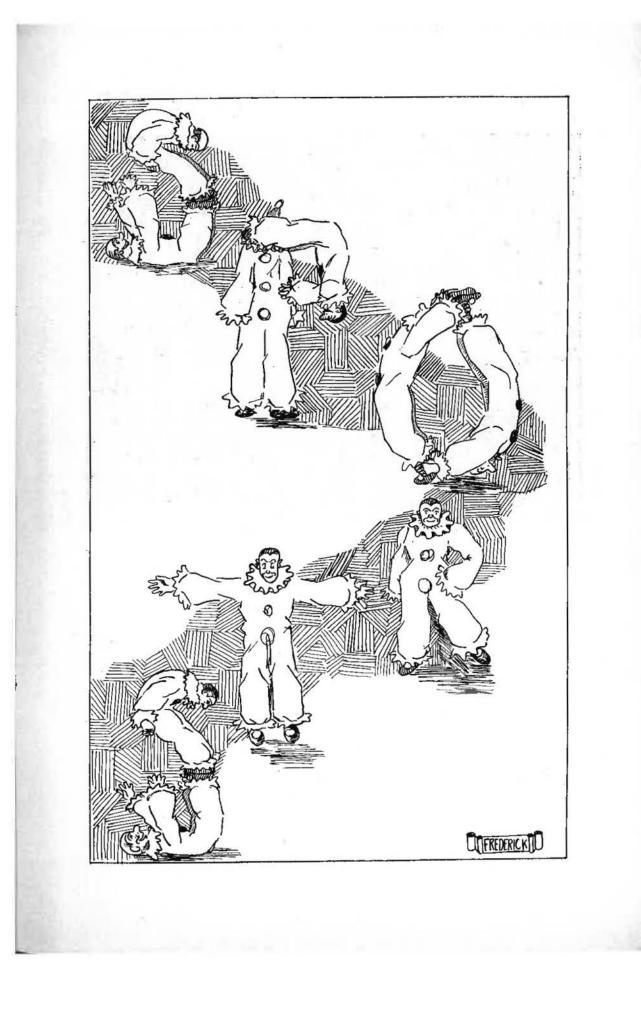

Forty-Seven

Music Makers

No entertainment in Barberton High is complete without music. The Orchestra has made splendid progress under the direction of Mr. George Bowen. They have put "pep" into our Friday assemblies, made waits during plays enjoyable and always responded with a will when called on.

Forty-Eight

Basketball

The 1926 and 1927 Basketball team of the Brown and White met with hard luck, losing some "tough" games. However, after the January promotion, the team got its stride and thereafter lost but two games.

Fast passing and team work were featured in all the contests. There were no real stars, Pristo being the only letter man on the squad the second semester.

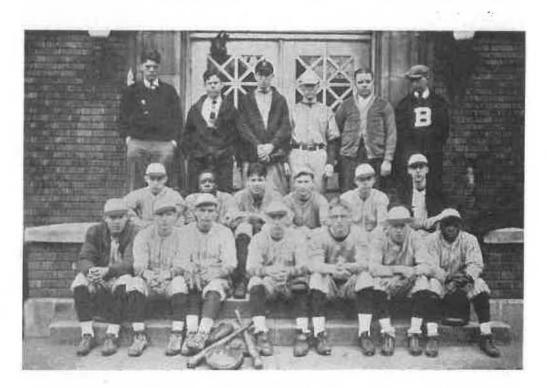

In spite of the handicap which presented itself the team fought hard in all its games, winning from Wadsworth, Medina, Massillon, New Philadelphia, Fostoria, Cuyahoga Falls; and losing to the Akron teams and Sharon. Of these Garfield and East were lost in overtime games.

The credit for the development of the team in the face of difficulties is due to Coach Pratt, for the interest he displayed in the players. He will have three letter men back next year and should build up a strong team. We are grateful to "Doc" Spangler for his work in assisting Coach Pratt and to the "scrubs" for their work in giving us practice.

The following men made the Varsity Squad: Pristo, Captain; Kinney, Ling, Seryak, Appleman, Mears, Raplenovic, H. Ricks, Sherman and Smith. Linden Brown acted as manager.

Baseball

The baseball outlook for 1927 was bright for Barberton High. We had five letter men back from last year: Sherman, catcher; Raplenovic, 2nd base; H. Ricks, 3rd base; Jones, outfield, and Pristo, shortstop. However the weather man cheated us out of some necessary practices and also forced us to postpone the first game with Kenmore on April 22nd. Wc were kept from going to Orrville on the 27th for the same reason. On April 29th we played Wadsworth here, losing to them 2-0 in a most exciting game. Both runs were scored in the second inning on an error. Several times the bases were loaded, but our katters failed to hit on account of lack of practise. The next week Coach Pratt sent the boys through some hard practises and on the 2nd of May we played our postponed game with Kenmore. To all appearances we were going to wipe up the field with them, for we scored four runs in the first inning. The team played like a new nine. The batters knocked the ball to all corners of the field, with Raplenovich leading the attack by collecting a home run, double and single. However Kenmore staged a comeback in the seventh inning and when the dust had cleared away the score was 6-5 in our favor. This was the last game played before the Magician went to press, and we have every reason to look forward to a successful season.

The team was composed of Axner-Eddy and Sherman-Witwer as the battery. C. Ricks on first, Mike Raplenovic on second, H. Ricks at third and Pristo at short. The outfield was constantly being changed, and was played for the most part by Jones, J. Lipovsky, and Milford.

Linden Brown, Manager; Stanley Pratt, Coach.

The schedule for the remaining season is as follows:

May	6	Medina	here
May	10	Orrville	there
May	13	Kenmore	41
May	20	Wadsworth	there
May	21	Orrville
May	27	Medina	there

Tennis

Owing to the bad weather conditions during the month of April, Barberton's Raqueteers were unable to start practicing very early for their first match with Wadsworth. The following constitute the tennis team: Joseph Cobb, Kenneth Burnley, Thomas Keenan, Howard Coffelt, and Captain Fred Parks. The tennis team has matches with Wadsworth, Wooster, Medina, Akron North, and Cuyahoga Falls.

The veterans of last year's Raqueteers are Joe Cobb and Fred Parks. These two, aided by the new material, hope for a winning combination.

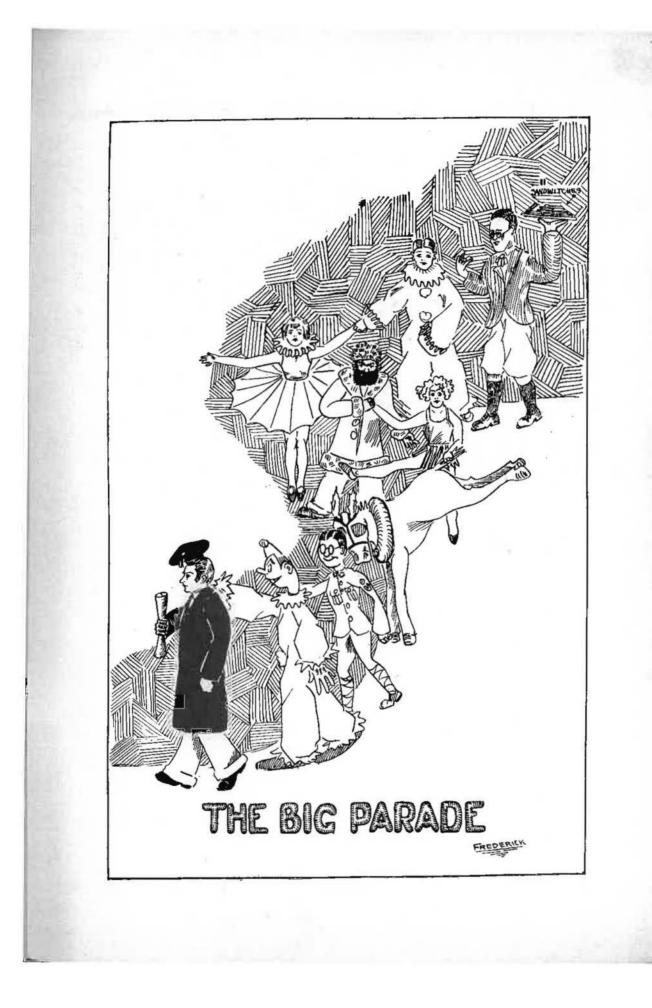

Golf

Frank Smith, Aldo Paolano, Marcel Romain and Captain Joe Seryak, compose B. H. S. Golf Quartette for 1927.

Due to little practice Barberton Golf team was defeated by Akron North 12-4 on April 30. Frank Smith collected all the points for B. H. S.

George French, coach, is in touch with other Akron schools for matches later in the season.

The Grab Bag

As a peppy Side Show the second annual "Grab Bag" won't be easily forgotten. "The Maker of Dreams" was the most ambitious production, while "Bolshevik" and "Katrinka" have become characters historically famous in B. H. S.

The proceeds from the show went for the Senior Banquet given by June '27, and was sponsored by them under the direction of their Faculty Advisor, Miss Cline.

The Big Show—Class Play

"Clarence", a four-act farce by Booth Tarkington, was chosen by June '27 for their "Big Show", the class play. If laughter is a criterion of success the roars which came from the auditorium April 28-29 would make any circus troupe proud.

The Tale of a Mule

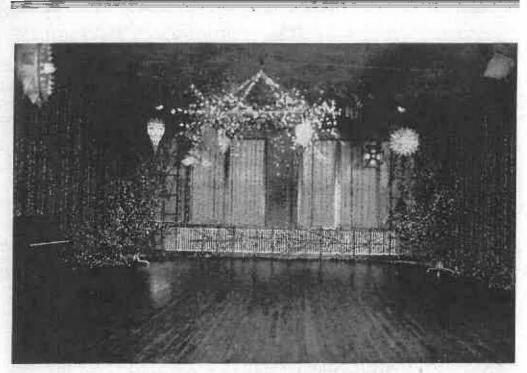

Every good circus has its mule. June '27 is no exception. The advertisers for "Clarence" decided they needed one for the parade. A search by Joe Mallinak and George Hanzel finally located an unlucky beast five miles, through mud, north of town.

Joe and Fred Parks with the big bass drum were a guard of honor for Sir Mule and Clarence in the parade.

But afterwards! Oi yoi! That homeward trip, when a Fordster decided he needed an extra wheel and bumped it neatly from the mule cart. A broken axle—oi, yoi, such troubles—such weggon-makers—such bleck-smiths, such moneys.

His Mulish Majesty arrived home on the wrong end of Dot's auto. Fred learned to sing Mule Music and the troupe have only a horse collar and tale to remind them of past glories.

INSIDE THE "BIG TOP"-SENIOR BANQUET

The Big Feed

A "Chow Tent" transformed—candle lit and lovely, quaint with its windmills and tiny Dutch figurines, haunting music, flitting lads and maids in starched white caps, bearing trays—truly a scene of enchantment—then suddenly the lights.

The spell is broken and shouts of laughter herald an evening of gaity —The Senior Banquet.

Hippo, who saw, says:

Art Logsdon has a startling voice.

Those "handgrown" apple blossoms weren't so bad.

Helen Pekar danced on the table-oh!

The Harmony Hounds howled some mean music.

The balloon dance was a wow.

That faint enticing odor was straw, not perfume.

Day by Day

January 23:

Three Seniors, Vin Kinney, Joe Pristo and Linden Brown landed in Kenmore jail today.

January 24:

Art Logsdon the Gallant directed a straying Frosh to the Boiler Room for study.

January 25:

What ho! The impossible—Ed. Fischer has some money, cash, coin on this January 25, 1927. Someone must have bought a pair of his Xmas socks.

January 26:

A little colored girl walked down the hall in front of a friend who gave her a push.

"Say tha' boy, stop yo' shovin' me," she ordered.

"Why honey, Ah ain't shovin' yo', ah's jus' helpin' yo' along".

January 27:

Who said Freshies were green? In the S. H. today one saw a girl writing out a French assignment and asked, "What's that book, is it hard?"

Miss Upper Class replied, "It's a French book."

"Shakespeare?" asked the Frosh.

"No, a French Play."

"Oh" was the enlightened answer.

January 28:

The Senior A's gave the Freshies a rousing cheer when they left chapel today.

February 2:

Ed. Fischer named all the Secretaries and the work of each in Civics Class. The oration was given in impressive tones as he strode majestically up and down the floor.

February 3:

William Red Fox, a Sioux Indian, regaled us with stories of his people. His drum was a Hindu one—why, we asks?

February 4:

Won from Massillon by ten points. Mr. Light chewed his gum most entertainingly while Coach Pratt gnawed an old red sweater. Does "Chuck" Mears wearing his two jerseys mean he has a modesty complex?

February 8:

"A big rat" two inches long caused a riot in the Cafeteria.

February 9:

Journalists gathered data concerning the teachers today—some actually have a sense of humor. Mr. Lyman teaches General Science,

Fifty-Eight

a relative of General Scott. Mr. Pieffer when asked to sign his full name wrote "Full Name".

February 10:

"Miss McGarvey", was the cry from the Shorthand class over three pages of shorthand.

Miss McGarvey: "You shouldn't get so tired from just writing shorthand—look at me now, I have to teach it day after day."

"You're getting paid for it, we're not" moaned Bill Witwer.

February 11:

Basketball tickets were sold in Chapel for the Medina game at the reduced price of twenty cents. Watch the Senior boys step out.

February 12:

B. H. S. beat Cuyahoga Falls in an unusually fast game 24-20.

February 14:

The Freshman number of the Magician went to the tune of four hundred eighty copies.

February 15:

We heard about "Aunt Maggie's Will" in chapel. A canary that sang all through the play was the star.

February 18:

The Senior Indian War Dance helped make the pep, meeting today a hot one. Sure we beat Fostoria.

February 19:

Boy! What a blow that Garfield High game was-25-24.

February 24:

The Journalism and Printing classes gave the Times-Press office the once over. A special bus took the uproarious crowd to the big city. The offices were most interesting.

February 25:

Mrs. Davis, sister of Mr. Bowen, delighted everyone with her singing in Chapel this morning. "The Hobby Number" produced a wondrous "Nag" in chapel.

February 29:

Just nuthin' but snow and ice today.

March 4:

Much heavy scamstressing has been going on for days getting those "swell" new Basketball suits ready for the Tournament. It sure hurts worse to lose by one point than ten.

March 7:

Bells went wrong today--ninety minute third period.

The big athletic event of the season took place today after school when the Senior A's beat the Senior B's in a Baskteball game 32-23. Much assistance was given the Senior B's by the feminine part of the class. Many startling costumes were worn and the cheering rocked the building—also Max Grossman got a bath. March 8:

The new clock, a present from the class of January '27, was installed today. No more tardy excuses on that score.

March 11:

Debate day! Wadsworth affirmative, Barberton negative on "Should the Phillipines be given their Independence by 1930?" B. H. S. won! March 16:

"Vin" Kinney took a loud crash to the floor in journalism class.

The Senior A's are spreading sunshine these days now that the blazers can be worn without coats.

March 17:

Much green on display today besides the Freshies.

March 18:

Emaline Werner had a big surprise today when she saw a man pull a bleeding fish from Lake Anna. "Why," exclaimed Emaline "I didn't know fish had blood"—live an' learn!

The much talked of Senior A class party was held in the music room tonight. Dancing—a slick lunch—"Lin" Brown chief oyster slinger. Ed. Fischer distinguished himself by eating twelve cheese sandwiches, for which he earned fifty cents and the cheers of all present.

March 19:

Ethelwyn Carpenter maintained in Civics class that the ten commandments prohibited Congress from taking away the rights of the people. March 23:

arch 25.

A Magician's entertainment helped us out of one recitation today.

March 24:

Just plain old slush and ice and rain.

March 25:

The much heralded "Yellow Journal" went on sale today. Now for the libel suits.

March 29:

Neda, Emaline and Kathryn all performed in Chapel. Emaline says Harding used toothpicks.

March 30:

A dead mouse in Coletta Johnston's desk caused an uproar in study hall.

March 31:

Twelve numbers of the Senior A class helped Peg celebrate her birthday. A beautiful loving cup was presented.

April 1:

The girls enjoyed their own singing at assembly. Joe Sherman, champion kidder, had slips made out summoning teachers to the office —ask Miss Jeffries.

April 4:

The Senior B's bought a carload of bluing and started competition to the Senior A sunshine blazers. Must be tough on Mr. Everett to have so much sadness and gladness in study hall at the same time.

April 6:

Poor Coletta Johnston fell out of her seat in Study Hall—Still nervous about the mouse.

April 7:

The Seniors have chosen "Clarence" as their class play for April 28-29. April 8:

An unusually good Magician, the Alumni number, came out today.

April 12:

An especially good chapel program was given. A concert by Kathryn Buskey, Dorothy Bantz, Marjorie Boden, Blanche Brubaker, Verna Thompson and Ruth Bell.

April 12:

Ben Levin thinks the people of Illinois are very economical because they use rope instead of electricity to put people to death.

April 13:

Fred Parks has put a feather in his hat by way of a new Easter outfit. April 18:

Back to the old grind after that nifty Easter vacation.

April 19-24:

These are dark brown days, during which the class play gets made. April 25

Without doubt Fern Poulton and Evelyn Stair were honored by their new deskless study hall seats.

April 26:

With the coming of warm weather we miss Art Logsdon's famous gloves. Fred has added a "Post no Bills" sign to his famous chapeau.

April 27:

"The Big Parade!" The Senior A's acquired a mule (ask Joe Mallinak), a bass drum, plenty of horns and their huge "Clarence" sign and set out to advertise THE play. Eats were slung in the cafeteria when everyone had corns and no voice.

Getting the mule home was something else again--(Dot will explain). The work of the whitewash slingers was startling, to say the least. April 28:

Our debut as artists! "Clarence" before the public for its maiden appearance—Only minor casualties resulted.

April 29:

The crowd must have liked our soldier boy friend—everything jake tonight—the coffee cups weren't dropped nor nothin'—receipts over four hundred bucks.

May 2:

Adios-We go to press.
